SEVILLE

I'm going to talk about a magical place which has something really special, because once known, you carry it in the heart forever.
Seville is the capital and largest city of Andalusia. It's in the south of Spain and it's situated on the plain of Guadalquivir river. Seville has a metropolitan population of about one million and five hundred thousand, making it the fourth largest city in Spain. It's old town, is the third largest in Europe and it contains three Unesco World heritage sites:

-The Alcazar palace complex.
-The Cathedral.
-El Archivo General de las Indias.

If you want to go to know Seville, it's better if you go in spring or autumn because in summer it's too hot. So the best season is spring.
The people are really nice and funny. They're always in good mood.
Seville is full of emotions, in its streets you can notice a lovely smell of different flowers which covers the whole city.
When it comes to eating well and cheaper, you must go to Triana's neighbourhood. In this way, you can try delicious tapas and its famous wine. Triana is a district on the west bank of the Guadalquivir river. It was known as an Arrabal. It's connected to Seville by the Isabel II bridge popularly known as Puente de Triana.
In Seville you have a huge variety of amazing thing not to get bored like:

-Going for a walk to María Luisa's park to discover every wonderful part.
-Getting around the city by modern tram or riding a bike.
- Chilling in its colorful bars.
- Knowing its bullfighting art.
-Shaking your body with the flamenco music.

Seville never sleeps. If you to go clubbing, Seville is perfect. There're a lot of discos and pubs next to the river.

You can't leave Seville for later because Seville bewitches you!!
