Dear Mum,

Jose and I are writing you from Galicia in the North of Spain. We are staying in a hotel in A Coruna, a beautiful coastal city.

Yesterday we visited the Hercules's Tower. I liked it! There were great views. although It was windy and we couldn't make cool photos.

Today we are visiting Santiago, because there is a big beautiful Cathedral and many restaurants. Seafood is very cheap here!

Tomorrow we are going to walk and to swim in Dos Moros's Beach. I hope the water isn't cold.

I would like to come back to Galicia in June, because Galicia is cooler than Madrid.

Next Monday we are going to go back to Madrid, and I'm going to need to buy new clothes for the summer. Would you like to go shopping with me?

Kisses!!!

xoxo
